

Elizabeth ("Beth") Gonzales - my life story

Before I received eternal life, I had fear of death and had so many worries in life. One of my big fears was that I didn't know where I would go when I die.

One day my husband together with my children were invited to a gathering at the Maranatha Baptist Church and the speaker shared about Eternal Life.

He shared that when the a man or woman dies with sin they will go to hell. But when a person repents and receives Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord then they go to heaven. Since then me and my family go to that church every Sunday for the reason that the couple who invited us is generous and friendly. My husband Joe is the first in our family who became Christian.

The Maranatha Baptist Church is quite far from our place, my husband searched for a nearer place to worship God and that we found Gospel Church of Manila.

One Sunday of Oct. 1984, me and my family attended a worship service, the passage is found in John 3:16 and it was an Evangelistic Sunday. On that memorable day of October 1984, I personally accepted Jesus as my Saviour and Lord. Since then I have had no fear of death because I already have an assurance that I will go to heaven when I die. He took away all my worries for I hold on to His promise in Hebrews 13:5 "I will never leave you nor forsake you". Trials and persecutions come, but God gives me strength and courage to face all life's challenges.

My ministry is my family and supporting my husband's ministry SIKATT.

I know He will continue to provide all our needs according to His glorious riches.

To God be the Glory!!!

Beth Gonzales
