APPEAL FOR BUILDING THE NEW LIFE CENTRE IN MARGAO

TOTAL COST £140,000

RAISED SO FAR £40,000

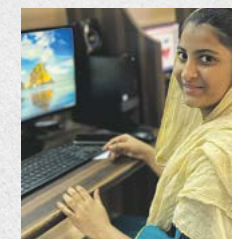

Transforming the lives of the rejected people of India

THE TENDER HEART MINISTRY

Works with the most vulnerable, disadvantaged and poor people in India – the Dalits. They want to expand the ministry to empower more people and enable them to hear about God's wonderful love for them.

THE CHALLENGE

To build a new purpose built centre which will provide vocational training, life skills training, counselling, health advice, a day care centre for young children, as well as Christian teaching to empower the most vulnerable and needy to have a hope and a future.

Tender Heart works with the Dalits, the most disadvantaged people group in India

The Dalit people live in the slums and do the work no one else wants to do. Our partners, Francis and Alison, have worked with them in Goa since 2007.

Tender Heart run several Day Care Centres for young children, which include education, Bible stories, medical care, lunch and transport. Parents are also offered health care, parenting advice and Bible teaching. This enables the children to stay with their families instead of being sent to an orphanage as often happens.

Dalit women and girls are particularly at risk, because of their severe poverty parents often sell their daughters into the Devadasi system of temple prostitution.

Tender Heart also run tailoring courses and computer training, offering the chance of a future for these forgotten people. Lives have been transformed through this ministry. Girls have been rescued from going into prostitution and given a means of income through a trade learnt at Tender Heart.

Through Tender Heart, adults learn valuable skills which can mean the difference between them having an income or being destitute. Not only that, but the children's work reaches the adults as well.

Francis and Alison

Francis and Alison tell how children go home and teach their parents and grandparents what they are learning. Through Tender Heart, children and adults learn about Jesus. Worship and Bible studies are a regular part of the work that Francis and Alison do in the community.

WITH A NEW CENTRE WE COULD ACHIEVE SO MUCH MORE AND REACH SO MANY MORE PEOPLE

Please help Francis and Alison to reach the rejected by giving generously.

Francis and Alison say:

“At the moment in Margao city we operate a Day Care Centre for young children from two small rented rooms which are far from ideal. With a new purpose built centre we can considerably expand the work and provide support and training for many additional families and individuals”

What is planned?

The New Life Centre will offer a purpose-built facility for:

- ◆ Day Care for Dalit children living in the slums of Margao
- ◆ Tailoring Training Centre
- ◆ Computer Training Centre
- ◆ Addiction Centre
- ◆ Carpentry workshop for young people in the slums
- ◆ Various skills workshops
- ◆ Counselling Centre for the broken families and those with HIV/AIDS
- ◆ Workshops and seminars on health and hygiene for the community
- ◆ Sunday worship and Bible studies

This new centre will have a huge impact on the people in the Dalit community. It will empower them to have a better quality of life.
