TESTIMONIES

HERE ARE SOME ENCOURAGING TESTIMONIES:

Jelena – came to us with a certain problem in her marriage. We encouraged her to pray to God for her marriage, as well as listen to what God wants to say to her through His Word. She was asking for some specific verses from the Scripture concerning her problem and was very grateful to see that God talks about all the issues she was struggling with. Please pray for Jelena as she seeks God through His Word and for her heart to be a good soil for the seed God has prepared to plant in it.

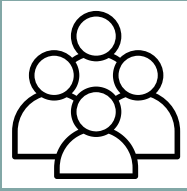

Sanya – is in the process of divorce. She is struggling to trust God in her circumstances. We tried to encourage her to pray for her husband and seek the Lord through His Word. She was grateful for “all the wonderful advice” as she put it, but we will continue our conversation with her. Please pray for Sanya and her marriage, and that she will truly come to the Lord and surrender her life to Him.

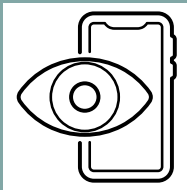

Spasenia – wrote to us that she doesn't have peace in her heart, like so many people that are writing to us these days. Through the conversation, we offered to send her a copy of the Bible so she can start reading it, but she said she would buy it herself. After a while, we continued talking about the importance of getting to know God through His Word and we sent her a link to the Audio Bible we produced a couple of years ago and she said she would listen to it. She also asked for some messages from the Bible that she could listen to, so we sent her a link to the sermons from our church. She was very grateful for all these resources, but we ask you to please pray with us for Spasenia, that she will listen to the voice of God and be drawn to Him so that she can finally find peace that only our Lord and Savior can give.
