TESTIMONIES

Perica wrote to us at the beginning of the year, wanting to know how he could have assurance of salvation. After some time of communication, he wrote, “Thank you so much. This must have been destiny, since I’ve wanted to meet someone who can teach me about the Bible for such a long time. This couldn’t have been a coincidence.” Please continue to pray for Perica, that God will reveal Himself to him and that the Holy Spirit will be his teacher as he reads the Bible.

Boban stopped reading the Bible a year ago. He says that he feels empty and broken and also struggles with some mental issues. As we continued talking about God and His Word, he said, “I’ve got the Bible in my hands again—how should I address God?” We encouraged him to read the Bible prayerfully, to listen carefully to God’s voice, and to obey as soon as he senses that God is speaking to him through His Word. Please pray for Boban, that his health issues would not be an obstacle to drawing closer to God, and that he would continue to grow closer to Him and not give up on reading His Word.

Milan and his son Tadija started reading the Bible together, but he is still not sure how he can become part of God’s family. We talked about the Gospel of John and are praying that God will reveal His truth to him as he continues reading and communicating with us. Please pray that God will speak clearly to him and draw him into His family.

Daniel started a conversation with us with an open heart and great interest in God’s Word. At first, it was hard for him to understand that we are sinners from birth, but he kept asking questions, and we kept answering from Scripture. He asked for a New Testament, which we gladly sent to him as a gift, and we are now talking more about meeting in person. Please pray for Daniel, that he will continue seeking the Lord and be willing to meet with us, so we can share the Gospel with him face to face and hopefully invite him to church to meet other believers.
