TESTIMONIES

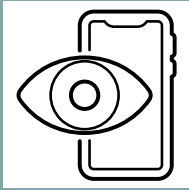

Pure Genius – This was the name on the account of a man we had a very interesting conversation with. We still don't know his real name, but God does. He wanted to know how God can be loving if He allows babies to die and whether he will spend eternity in hell if he doesn't repent. He had many good questions, and our conversation went really well. At the moment, we ended our conversation with him saying, "Thank you so much for a really pleasant conversation. Maybe there is still hope for me." We encouraged him that God is waiting for him and that there is hope as long as there is breath in his lungs. So please pray with us for "Pure Genius," that God will touch his heart and open his eyes so he can see who God really is and surrender his life to Him.

Zoki Pavlović – Zoki experienced huge discouragement and heartbreak when his parents died, to the point that he stopped reading the Scriptures and praying from his Orthodox prayer book. We shared with him that God has a plan for his life and tried to encourage him to start reading God's Word again and draw closer to God. Finally, when we offered to send him a New Testament as a gift, he joyfully accepted. Hopefully, this week he will receive it and start reading it again. Please pray with us for Zoki to experience God's presence and His comfort and to truly come to know Him as his Lord and Savior.

Daniel Milosavljević – After several months of communication and sending Daniel a New Testament as a gift, we offered him a face-to-face meeting. He hasn't responded yet, but please pray with us that God will prompt him to take us up on this offer, so we can meet in person, start reading the Bible together, and introduce him to the family of believers in his hometown of Niš.

Jasna Milijašević – Jasna claims to know God and loves God, but has no time to read His Word. She listens to all the messages from Orthodox church leaders and priests, but whenever we mention God's Word, she simply says, "I will start reading soon." After several weeks, when we asked her again whether she had started reading God's Word, emphasizing again how important it is to know God and listen to His voice, she said, "I will soon go to the monastery and buy it." When we offered to send her a New Testament as a gift, she was not ready to give us her address. Please pray with us for Jasna, that she will be prompted by God to seek Him and to get to know Him through His Word.
